Licence alternative for productions with larger music requirements

ProductionFlatrate

As an alternative to the (time wise unlimited) title- or CD/DVD-licence, the licence model ProductionFlatrate allows to limit the costs for music rights. ProductionFlatrate allows to use as much music from Highland Musikarchiv as needed for a single production, always priced only € 300,00. Please note that the advantage of standard title- or CD/DVD-licence (time wise unlimited -□ entitling to use licensed music also in future productions) is not included in the ProductionFlatrate. □

ProductionFlatrate: bound to specific production, not to customer/person as above: € 300,-

No p&p charged for orders delivered within Europe. P&p rates to other countries available on request.

Special rates available for purchasing the complete archive. Please contact us for more details.
